the long expected improvement seems now quite as much in the future as it was a month or six weeks SINGAPORE, POINT DE GALLE, AND ago. With regard to the present inactivity there of the most substantial causes is to be found in the THE P. & O.S. N. Co. sateanship continued scarcity of money among the Chinese, brought about to a great extent by the long delaye Fonening of the markets by the foreigners, for the two great articles of export. Apart from this fact. however, the only true explanation of the very limited demand for manufactured goods could only be given by a more thorough knowledge of the inferior of China, its wants and its resources then is at present known to the foreigner. Until this is nthined, it must be next to impossible to correctly TillE Steumship very directly and materially effect the condition of trade bera. Even, at the quotations ruling to-day importers show little disposition to part with their goods, and as the Chinese are still asking for lower prices, matters are ata standatill for the time being. It is evident from the cautions manner in which the dealers are going about, and the little interest they affect, that as yet there is no demain what-
